APPLICATION CASE STUDY:

Project Description: Apply Product to Office Flooring

Customer: The Coleman Property Group,
PNC Tower

Location: Lexington, Kentucky

Date: August, 2015

PROJECT DETAILS

Project Overview: Customer was required to continually strip and re-wax floors that held dirt and was hard to keep clean. Quarterly buffing was required to remove any yellowing from the wax and to restore shine to the floor. Client sought to reduce on-going maintenance costs, while improving the floor's luster and shine.

xGen Product Purchased Through: PPG Lexington / Wendell Davis, Sales Representative

Customer Contact: Lynn Pearson, Senior Vice-President

PRODUCT DETAILS

xGen Product Utilized: X-PROTECT Vinyl & Linoleum - High-Gloss

Features & Benefits: X-PROTECT Vinyl & Linoleum - High-Gloss was applied to give the floors the high-gloss appearance that the customer requested. The client is able to reduce the on-going maintenance cost of quarterly buffing and waxing. The floors are now non-yellowing from wax applications, chemical resistant and easy to clean. xGen coatings provide a long-term solution that will last 3-5 years and will provide slip resistance on the floors.
